AT THE CITY'S GATES

EAST LOS ANGELES.

A retrospect of the past year's activities in the development of East Los Angeles shows the gratifying fact that 129 residences have been built and several important manufacturing establishments installed making an investment of over $175,000 during this period. This, of course, does not include the large amount expended in the improvement of the railroad properties. The East Side has experienced a thorough awakening, and new improvements are being made on all sides. The highways lying back of the County Hospital, and stretching on to Soho street on Boyle Heights, have been secured by a syndicate, which will improve them for choice residence locations.

Judge and Mrs. R. A. Lang departed Saturday for their new location at Hartford, Ct., and were accompanied by Miss Susan Johnson of North Griffin avenue, who will pass the summer in Hartford.

Rev. W. F. Irvine preached in the East Side Baptist Church yesterday morning on "Sanctification."

Rev. H. Gillan at Asbury Church, preached on "The Making of a Character." The Epworth League gave a character social Friday night in the church parlors. Each participant was supposed to impersonate a noted character. Miss Maude Stratton gave a play on "The Making of a Character." They will open the work in the main and evening meetings next week, and will establish a Sunday-school.

The East Side News is thirteen years old, and has reached its fifth year under the management of Mr. J. M. L. Its recent illustrated edition, exploiting the merits of East Los Angeles, was filled with interesting facts and figures.

W. Sidney Fertig and his parents have come from St. Paul, Minn., and are located at the Sutton residence on 14th street. Mr. Fertig owns real estate on the East Side, and intends to build here.

Mrs. Annie Fullerton of Avenue 34, has returned from an extended visit at Detroit, Mich.

Word has been received here of the death of Oliver Tamm at Seattle, the result of an operation for appendicitis. He had just arrived from Alaska, where he had been for some time. Mr. Tamm was for five or six years a resident of the East Side, and was well known here as a popular athlete. His wife was about 60 years of age.

Tuesday evening the guests of East Lake Camp, Woodmen of America, were the members of the regular degree team who carried through the team degree work with two candidates. After the initiation refreshments were served.

The contest, "The Searchers," under the leadership of Mrs. Bonner, "dancer" by the "Winners," but by Mrs. Metzler. Wednesday evening the defeated side returned the compliment by giving the victors a surprise supper of brown bread, brown butter, brown rice, brown sugar, brown coffee, brown tea, brown cake, brown fruit, brown nuts, brown paper caps and aprons, and brown paper napkins and table cover graced the festive board.

Last night there was a general mass meeting of East Side at St. Paul's church, the Methodist, Presbyterian and Congregational churches holding an evening service. An address was given by Dr. E. C. Rogers, superintendent of the Los Angeles Anti-Slavery League. At this service a solo was rendered by Miss Grace Deane of the First Baptist Church.

BOYLE HEIGHTS.

The question as to what pair of shoulders will catch the Countessman mantle to be doled by Countman Blanchard is already a current topic of conversation in the Ninth Ward. It is estimated that Mr. Blanchard will not stand for reelection. Among those spoken of in the general range of candidates, the most prominent at present are: Messrs. Fred Stanborn, North 27th, B. J. McNeill, George Blum, Rev. F. A. Evans and Dr. Charles Bacon. There is prospect of an exciting campaign, and it is likely these tickets will be in the field.

The Brooklyn Heights people are stirring around to secure the opening of a street from the highlands to the old Mission road. They see a great opportunity to secure a substantial growth if any avenue can be had to the new Southern Pacific shops. The territory is really within walking distance, and will be attractive to business sites for those employed in the shops. It is desired to secure a bridge across the Los Angeles river, and where in the vicinity of Lord street.

After a sojourn of a year on Boyle Heights, Mrs. Caroline Perry has returned to her home at Table Grove, Ill. She was a guest of the home of Dr. Charles Bacon, No. 131 Broad street.

Mrs. A. E. Bartholomew is having built a residence to cost $100 at No. 505 South St. Louis street.

The Calvary Baptist Church, corner of East Second and St. Louis streets, is completed, and will be opened next Sunday by the new pastor, Rev. J. P. French. During the work there will be nightly services conducted by pastors from the various Baptist churches of the city. A large chorus choir will be directed by the singing evangelist, Simon from Chi-

UNIVERSITY.

These are the best days University ever known, and prospects are bright for a still more prosperous future. Although good times are general throughout the district, the special along Jefferson street, toward Vermont avenue, is brought into special prominence just now by the new electric road which the Traction Company will commence building on that thoroughfare at once. A year ago a bonus of $600 was raised by interested taxpayers to secure a street car service on the street. A little later the franchise for the line was awarded to the Traction Company, and there the matter has rested quietly, until recently, when the Hook people commenced operations in earnest, and given assurance that the road will be ready for business early in the coming summer. Another factor that has contributed to the unusual brightness of the outlook is the installation of a waterworks system, for which the pipes are now being laid.

Another influence that has made for the life in real estate transactions and building activity hereabouts is the recent rapid growth and widening of the street car line, which has been on the upward grade for some time, and is coming to be reckoned as an element of money.

The large numbers of students who are coming to the college here to allow their sons and daughters the privilege of a college education, and the fact that the demand for property within a reasonable distance of the university.

The Capitola girls will enter the college school, and will join in paying honors to the college.

STORAGE RESERVOIR FOR WATER WASTE.

FINE SITE FOR THE PURPOSE

Superintendent Mulholland This
That the Basin at Ivanhoe Should Selected and that it Will Lessen

With the daily consumption of water in Los Angeles averaging 25,000,000 gallons, the importance of the announcement made by Superintendent Mulholland last Monday before

Water Commissioners that the company owned some property on its north boundary that might be converted into a storage reservoir capable of holding 100,000,000 cubic feet, or hardly be overestimated.

The land in question is just south of the town of Ivanhoe and adjoins city limits. It was acquired by the city about twelve years ago as a site for a storage reservoir and was surveyed two years later, but no further work was done. It is well adapted for such purposes, as it forms a depression in the ground and could be easily filled from the main supply ditch. Below this basin is a canal which is the natural outlet for all the water from the basin and ravine above. The basin is about two thousand feet wide in the widest part and is nearly a mile and a quarter long. If it were filled with water there would be a depth of sixty feet. Of the land in this depression the city owns

It is the plan to fill this basin in the winter with water from the main supply ditch that now goes to waste and to begin its distribution about the 1st of May. Enough water could be conserved by this means to furnish the flow of 3,375,000 gallons a day for the succeeding six months. If the project is accepted it is the intention of the superintendent of the basin to construct a dam across the mouth of the cañon, and this purpose of 150,000 yards of canal.

Although the possession of such a reservoir would greatly relieve the situation it is not the only site available. Less than a mile away and very convenient to the site proposed is another which would be just as available, and which, the superintendent estimates, would hold nearly as much water. The two reservoirs together would furnish a flow of nearly 8,000 gallons a day, or about one-third the amount that is now consumed the city.

In speaking of his proposed plan yesterday, Superintendent Mulholla said: "The city has reached a point

"For two years at least after it is filled the water will not be fit for domestic purposes, but can be used for supplying the parks and for irrigation. If it is disposed of to the way it will be just as valuable as domestic water, for it will take the place of many million gallons that are now used for that purpose. It will be long, however, before there will be no water available from present sources for irrigation, and by then the storage reservoirs may

"About the middle of this month the flow in the main supply ditch was 1,000,000 gallons, and since that time has decreased nearly 1,000,000 gallons. Never since I have been connected with the waterworks—and that twenty-five years—has there been little water in this ditch and in the river. The high-water mark was 1893, and the decrease has been at the rate of 4,000,000 gallons a year.

San Bernardino and Riverside Counties.

MUST PASS THROUGH SAN BERNARDINO.

SALT LAKE ROAD SURVEYS GO THROUGH THAT CITY.

Redlands Will Be on Branch Line—County Seat Is in Direct Line Between Riverside and the Pass—School Assignments Adjudged Illegal.

SAN BERNARDINO, May 25.—It having been pretty definitely determined that the main line of the Salt Lake road will not pass through Redlands, the people here are guessing whether or not San Bernardino will be on the map. The railroad's engineers have run several surveys through the city, and it is generally conceded that the route over the mountains will be via the Cajon Pass. The main line will surely pass through Riverside, and San Bernardino comes pretty nearly in a direct line between that city and the pass.

ASSESSMENTS ILLEGAL.
As the result of a decision of the Supreme Court rendered a few days ago, it has been discovered that money collected during the years 1928, 1929 and 1930 for the maintenance of the High School was collected under an illegal assessment. The illegality comes from the fact that the assessment levied by the city trustees is not a tax, but a fee for the use of the city's facilities. There are some property owners in this school district who did not pay the High School assessment during the years named. In some instances, the property was sold to pay the assessments, and in these cases the assessment can never be collected, and the sales made by the county are void.

OPTION ON WATER LAND.
The committee of nine, recently appointed to solve the municipal water question, has taken an option in the name of H. M. Barton, on twenty-two acres of land, located a short distance east of the city, on the north side of Sixth street, directly south of the Cooley well, recently sold to the city of Riverside. The price of the land, in case the city should purchase, is $100 an acre, and the option runs for nine months. It is supposed to be located in the best part of the basin of the arroyo.

The oil will be applied on Tuesday next and in order to obtain best results it will be heated to 180 deg. Contracts were made today with A. H. McKay, superintendent of the Western Union Company, to supply this road district with the necessary oil.

EXCELLENT BEET CROP.
The Union Sugar Company's beet crop will be one of the finest in the State this year, on lands which were irrigated. During the winter the company continued to irrigate, notwithstanding that an abundance of rain was falling and at the time was criticized for doing so, but since then the weather has been so dry and a good soaking has made itself manifest. About two thousand acres of beets have been thinned and cultivated and will not require any further attention. There is an abundance of moisture in the ground which insures rapid growth and will mature the beets in time to begin operations by July 15.

It was called to the attention of the court that the $10 order paid the previous day as a sort of preliminary had not materialized. A bench warrant was issued, which placed McCreary in the hands of the Sheriff for contempt of court, and he was locked up. Subsequently a friend put up the money for McCreary, and he was released from custody.

MANY SOLDIERS TO BE QUARTERED AT WHIPPLE.

WAR DEPARTMENT ORDERS EXTENSIVE BARRACKS BUILT.

At Apache to be Made a Six-company Post—Improved Water Service for Tucson—Fine Hotel to be Built at Grand Canyon.

PRESCOTT (Ariz.) May 24.—The chief topic of interest in this city is the rehabilitation of Whipple Barracks as a military post. Only one company of infantry is there at the present time, but an entire battalion will be ordered there as soon as proper buildings are ready to receive them.

The old buildings, mainly of adobe, are in a hopeless state of decay and are being replaced by a new building of concrete and steel. The War Department is prepared to expend over a quarter of a million dollars to properly house the troops and to make the post suitable for regimental headquarters.

Modern two-story barracks of stone or brick will first be built. The city authorities have connected the old post reservoir with the new water supply and the post is now abundantly supplied with pure water. Gen. Funston was expected here this week for an examination of the post, but word has been received of his severe illness at Denver. In their pleasure over the return of the soldier boys, the citizens of Prescott are thinking of erecting a monument to the soldiers who were killed in the battle of Apache.

Gen. Crook and Capt. O'Neill, on the return of more troops from the Philippines, the military authorities have announced that Apache is to be made a six-company post, with a garrison of a squadron of the Fourth Cavalry and two companies of the Twelfth Infantry.

BETTER WATER SERVICE.
It has been determined best to divide into two sections the great lift necessary between Del Rio and the town reservoir, a rise of about fifteen hundred feet in eighteen miles. Therefore, the city is preparing to install an auxiliary pumping plant, electrically driven, which will pump water north of Prescott, whereby the pipe will be relieved of a pressure of 260 feet.

The system will gain in discharge by about 15 per cent. Till this new station is in operation, an electric pump will be established where the pipe line enters Prescott to lift the water to the reservoir above the city.

HOTEL AT GRAND CANYON.
The new Santa Fe hotel at the end of the Grand Canyon Railway is to cost $150,000. Its architect, Charles Whittlesey, of Topeka, Kan., is reported to have designed a marvellously beautiful structure, perfectly in keeping with the sublimity of the gorge it will overlook. It is to be located in the pine woods, immediately at the head of Bright Angel trail, a scenic spot, especially remarkable amid the grandeur of the canyon. The water question is to be solved by placing powerful pumps below the spring at Indian Gardens, at a point 1500 feet lower than the hotel. It is probable that water power will aid in the pumping. There is no water on the plateau above the city.

CONFERENCE COMMITTEE WILL CONSIDER ITS FEATURES.
Opposition to Suggestion that Site Be Changed Will Be Given Opportunity to Present Their Views—Other side Has Had Its Inning.

(BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.)
WASHINGTON (D. C.) May 25.—(Exclusive Dispatch.) Important action will be taken Monday with reference to the proposed new postoffice building for Los Angeles. On that day the matter will be considered by the Conference Committee of the Senate and House, and final action may be taken one way or another in regard to the several features of the bill which are to be considered.

It is conceded here that Los Angeles will be given an appropriation for a new building, but there are some features of the bill which remain to be definitely settled. One important feature is the location of the proposed new building. There are those who desire that the Los Angeles postoffice be moved to some other location, and they have presented their views.

Those who are opposed to any change in the location of the building would have their opportunity to present their case Monday, and if they desire that the matter be considered, it behooves them to send their opinions and wishes on the subject to the Conference Committee or to Senator Fairbanks, who, as chairman of that committee, will see that communications in opposition to a change of location are given due consideration. Several telegrams opposing any change of site have already been received, and it is expected that others will be sent from Los Angeles tomorrow.

CHICAGO TEAMSTERS FIGHT MEAT TRUST.
DEMAND SHORTER HOURS AND AN INCREASE IN WAGES.

Quiet Day in Wyoming Coal Region—Difference of Opinion as to General Strike June Second—Financial Aid for Strikers from Railroads.

(BY THE NEW ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.)
CHICAGO, May 25.—Five hundred union teamsters gathered in the delivery of meat by the big packers, went on a strike at midnight, for a substantial increase in wages and for shorter hours. As a result of the strike the city meat supply was cut off, and retail dealers tomorrow or at the latest Monday, will be forced to turn to the city's stockpiles for their supplies.

The strikers claim that they have received assurances of support from the other labor organizations, whose members are employed at the stockyards, and that any attempt by the packers to fill their places with non-union men will result in a general tie-up of the city's meat supply.

The strikers assert that their committees have been denied conferences by the managers of the different packing-houses.

QUICK SUNDAY.
MINERS ARE Pondering.

(BY THE NEW ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.)
WILKESBARRE (Pa.) May 25.—This Sunday morning the coal miners of Wyoming region since the strike began. The offices of the coal companies were deserted, and at strike headquarters no one was on duty.

The current of opinion yesterday by President Mitchell, warning the Polish Slavic and Lithuanian miners to remain away from the bituminous region, and to stay in their own homes, was read in many of the churches.

Rev. J. J. Baader, presiding elder, preached at the United Methodist Church today, and urged the miners to be law-abiding and to be guided by their leaders so long as the leaders were faithful to the trust reposed in them.

Secretary Mullah of the Stationary Firemen's Union reported today that the poll of the men employed in the various collieries has just been completed, and that over 90 per cent. of the men will quit work on June 2, unless an eight-hour day is granted them.

Another officer of the union says the few hundred engineers who will quit work will not be nearly so large. The percentage of the pump men who will come out is not known, but the local operators are to be believed. It will be small.

The strikers here are inclined to look with favor on the move of the mine workers' conference at Huntington, W. Va., in ordering a strike of the anthracite miners.

They think it will hasten the crisis in the anthracite region. Meetings of railroad men to discuss the advisability of refusing to handle coal and bituminous coal during the progress of the miners' strike were held in Wilkesbarre, Kingston and Ashley this afternoon.

The Wilkesbarre meeting was more largely attended than the previous evening. It was stated that no action had been taken. The meeting at Kingston agreed to make the matter up next week. The Ashley meeting endorsed the miners' strike and will render financial aid.

The railroad brothers, who are in sympathy with the miners, will also give financial assistance, but it is said will not resort to violence.

EFFORTS AT SETTLEMENT.
(BY THE NEW ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.)
NEW YORK, May 25.—With reference to recent rumors that there is still hope of settling the differences between the coal miners and operators the Tribune will say tomorrow:

"Another attempt, it was learned today (Sunday) evening, will be made by the National Civic League to effect a settlement of the anthracite miners' strike, and a meeting will be held in the city tomorrow evening, unless the strike is ended in the mean time. Under the bylaws the federation's Arbitration Committee cannot act unless both sides to the dispute ask for its services."

"While the miners are willing to accept the services of the committee, the operators have refused to agree to arbitration. The Civic Federation is now preparing to call a meeting of its full Executive Committee to see if any new plan can be arranged. Both sides of the dispute will be asked to send representatives to the meeting."

SHAMORIN (Pa.) May 25.—By a vote of 45 to 15 the Shamorin miners and pumpmen at a mass meeting here this evening resolved not to go on strike June 2, even if the operators refused to grant an eight-hour working day at the present wage scale.

Cures Blood Poison.

A Trial Treatment Sent Free to All Who Suffer From Any Stage of the Disease.

Cures Cases That Hot Springs and All Other Treatments Failed to Even Help.

There has been discovered by the State Medical Institute, 305 E. Main St., Los Angeles, Cal., the most remarkable blood poison ever heard of. It has cured all such indications as mucous patches in the mouth, sore throat, copper-colored spots, chancres, ulcerations on the body and in hundreds of cases where the hair and eyebrows had fallen out and the whole skin was a mass of boils and sores. This wonderful specific has completely changed the whole body into clean, perfect condition of physical health. Every railroad running into Port Wayne brings scores of sufferers seeking this new and marvellous cure, and to enable those who cannot travel to realize what a truly marvellous work the institute is accomplishing, they will send a trial treatment, so that every one can cure themselves in the privacy of their own home. This is the only known cure for blood poison. Do not hesitate to write at once and the free trial will be sent sealed in plain wrapper.

The Early Day Sol Smith Russell.
In the minds of those who had followed the stage career of the late Sol Smith Russell for thirty years or more, his name was always closely associated with two songs. One of these he sang in the late '60s, when he was billed as "a serio-comic vocalist." Its refrain:

"I saw Esau kissing Kate,
For I saw Esau, 'e saw me,
And he saw I saw 'e saw me."

was on nearly everybody's lips in the country at the time. Years afterward, when he had become a successful dramatic star, he made the song "Shabby Gentles" of his own composition. He not only acted and looked, but for the time being he was, the personification of the refrain.

THE CITY IN BRIEF. MANY TIMES A BIGAMIST.

NEWS AND BUSINESS.

Paper Thieves.

Thomas and William McGraw, small boys, who were caught stealing newspapers yesterday morning on Spring street, are in the City Jail, awaiting an investigation of the case by the Humanitarian.

Bicycle Injured.

Dr. V. A. Hendon's horse ran away yesterday morning on North Main street and collided with a bicycle of which Segundo Yglesias, No. 3274, Aliso street, was the rider. Yglesias' left shoulder was bruised and he suffered a cut over the left eye.

Drunken "Newy" Hurt.

Fred McDonald, an imported Chicago freewheel, was found on Second street early yesterday morning, suffering from two severe cuts in the back of the head, which he had received while intoxicated. He could not or would not tell how the wounds were inflicted.

Missing Attorney.

A. G. Hinkley, an attorney who lives at No. 1912 Loveland avenue, and whose office is in the Rogers Block on New High street, is sought by his relatives, who have called on the police for assistance. He went to San Francisco about ten days ago, and from there he wrote to his wife that he was going to locate a mine in the northern part of the State. Nothing has been heard from Hinkley since that time, and his wife, who is ill, could not be seen by a reporter who called for information.

Tickets Won't Go Begging.

At 9 o'clock last night there were ten messenger boys and hotel bell boys, the latter paid by hotel guests, camped in the entrance of the Los Angeles Theater, awaiting the opening of the box office at 9 o'clock this morning for the John Drew engagement. Most of the boys had "partners" who relieved them during the night. The sharp-witted bell boys who had thus engaged themselves to guests during their off-duty hours, had considerable sums of money entrusted to them for tickets which, it appears, will go like hot cakes.

Yagui Again.

The picturesque and travel-stained band of Yagui from Mexico, whose members spent some time in the city a few months ago selling mockingbirds, is again encountered in the river, this time near the Seventh-street bridge. They claim to have journeyed as far north as San Francisco, but they seem to have as large a stock of "mockers" and red birds as ever, and the women are again seen on the streets with their wicker cages. If they had only timed their return here for the recent biennial of women's clubs, they might have reaped a harvest as mockingbirds were in demand.

An Impressive Funeral.

After impressive services in the Plaza Church yesterday afternoon over the remains of Mrs. Mary Surnano, who died Wednesday of injuries received by a fall some nights ago, the body was followed to the cemetery by thirty-eight hearse and ninety carriages, bearing friends and relatives of the deceased, who was a member of one of the oldest and noblest families. Two carriage loads of flowers were contributed, and the striking features of the funeral were the four black horses attached to the hearse and a band of music accompanying the procession. The burial was taken to the Calvary cemetery, Breese Bros. conducting the funeral.

Novel Wedding Present.

A silver wedding present of more than usual novelty has just gone forward from the Golden State to Mrs. F. P. Bendell of Cleveland, O., who are en route home after a visit in California. The present consists of nearly a cartload of growing oranges (tree, palm branches, flowers, wines, fruits, and specimens of nearly everything that grows on the Pacific Coast, in Arizona, the Hawaiian Islands and in Central America. In the low white canvas tree, eight feet in height, laden with golden fruit, blossoms and green oranges. The shipment was made by Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Bowers of this city, near friends of Mr. and Mrs. Bendell.

Died from Hemorrhage.

Harry James, who is supposed to have been a lodger at the Peninsula guest, suffered a hemorrhage of the lungs while seated on a bench in Central Park about 6 o'clock last evening, and died while being taken to the Receiving Hospital. Detective Hawley was seated on a bench in the park, when a man apparently 35 years old took a seat by him and began coughing violently. As the man drew a handkerchief over his mouth, he fell to the ground from weakness, with blood gushing from his throat. Hawley sent for the patrol wagon, but James was beyond upon arrival at the Police Station. James, it is believed, came here from San Jose. On this person was third class rail fare paid to Unity Council, No. 39, Junior Order United American Mechanics.

Villainous Record of Dr. E. C. Aldrich.

Married and Deserted at Least Six Wives.

Search Being Made for Some of His Victims by Los Angeles Officers.

When, after having wounded a detective, Dr. E. C. Aldrich fought a desperate battle with the police and finally shot himself to death in his office at Hotel Savoy on May 4, rather than submit to arrest on a charge of perjury, many persons expressed surprise that he made such a determined and desperate resistance when he was wanted only on that charge. It was repeatedly stated that, with the money which he possessed, he might have returned to Chicago with the Illinois officer and would probably have been able to secure his acquittal in the courts there by the same methods which he employed to secure his divorce. The prediction was then made that an investigation of his record would show that he was wanted somewhere for some much more serious offense, and that it was the fear of arrest for a darker crime which caused him to make such a resistance and finally take his own life.

Since the death of Aldrich a quiet investigation into his record has been prosecuted by the Public Administrator, assisted by the police, and it has not been learned that Aldrich was wanted anywhere except in Chicago, sufficient facts have been disclosed to prove that he was a villain, a bigamist, wife deserter and an abortionist.

Leon F. Moss, Esq., attorney for Public Administrator Kellogg, has written to many eastern cities where Aldrich is known, and the replies lead him to the belief that the deceased doctor had married and deserted at least six women, and the number may be increased as word comes from the investigation is concluded. Positive information of six of his marriages has been received and at the proper time it will be presented in court.

WHO WAS NUMBER ONE? Mr. Moss is now engaged in trying to find the address of a woman who is believed to have been one of Aldrich's first wives. Whether she was the very first is not known, but she was at least the third, and if she can be found the authorities will be able to trace the record of the dead criminal to a time before he was married. The woman was called Chadwaller, Chadwaller or Caldwell, the exact name not having been learned as yet. It will be ascertained in a few days, for it is known where Aldrich married her and when. She was the daughter of a Methodist clergyman and lived in Virginia. Her father died and soon after his death she met Aldrich, who was then living in Cincinnati. They were married in that city in 1894, and after a year of married life Aldrich deserted her and married another woman. She, too, was later deserted and Aldrich went to Texas he is said to have married again.

The former Miss Chadwaller has not been heard from for five or six years, and then she lived in Kansas City. The police of Kansas City are making a diligent search for her and it is possible that she may yet be found. There is also a woman in Omaha who once supposed herself to be the wife of Aldrich, and she may be induced to come to Los Angeles and participate in the legal fight which is being made to secure the estate, which is worth about $20,000, most of it being in cash.

TO SET ASIDE DIVORCE. W. R. Farrar, the Chicago officer who came to Los Angeles for the purpose of arresting Aldrich, and who is working in the interest of the woman whom Aldrich married in Dallas, Tex., in 1899, and whose maiden name was Aldridge, left for Chicago Saturday night to begin proceedings for the annulment of the divorce which Aldrich secured by perjury. The woman will be secured by the Chicago officer, and the attorneys who are opposing her efforts to secure her share of the estate admit that she will have little difficulty in having the divorce set aside, if the divorce is annulled it will give her some standing in the contest in Los Angeles courts for a share of the estate, provided some unlucky soul who married her does not appear and assert a prior claim. It is the opinion of the Public Administrator that whatever may happen the woman who passed as the wife of Aldrich in this city, and who was Miss Jessie Langford in Texas, will be the winner from the estate, because Aldrich's son by his Texas wife would come in before the contest.

The contest has hardly begun and before it is concluded it is probable that legal proceedings will have to be instituted in Texas and in Illinois.

WHITE CROSS' ADDRESS. A Woman Missionary Among the Soldiers Defines the Standard of Purity to Men Only Yesterday.

Mrs. Hester T. Griffith, who has done a great deal of work among the soldiers at Fort Douglas, Salt Lake City, addressed a man's meeting at Temperance Temple yesterday afternoon, speaking on the subject, "White Cross Work: Your Responsibility to Present and Future Generations." She told of her work in the mission for the soldiers of which she was superintendent, and spoke, in part, as follows: "As a man, I think in heart, so is he." When men look upon women as their sisters, they will protect them and not lead them into ruin. The world needs a better fatherhood and a better motherhood. Fathers and mothers are often responsible for their children becoming wrecks through heredity. Parents must be what they want their children to be.

"Much more than in former school children, and to meet this teachers must be educated not only intellectually, but morally as well. There are many children who are robbed of their birthright from having drunkards and white slaves in their homes. A white slave for two must be the standard of purity, the same for the boy as for the girl."

Prof. R. N. Jeffery furnished the music, and at the conclusion of the address a large number signed the white cross pledge.

THE REFORMATION.

Henry Austin Adams Lectures Before Large Audience at Los Angeles Theater—Catholic Events for Week. An event anticipated for several weeks by Los Angeles Catholics occurred last night in the appearance before a large audience at the Los Angeles Theater of the Catholic lecturer, Henry Austin Adams, who arrived here Thursday, and is a guest of the Newman Club.

Mr. Adams was supported last evening by many of the Catholic clergy of the city and vicinity, who were seated on the stage. The speaker was introduced by Rt. Rev. Bishop Montgomery, who took occasion to speak of the many divisions and creeds of the Protestant churches, and the real desire permeating many church bodies to secure a union of interests and organizations on one common basis.

Mr. Adams was formerly an Episcopalian, but several years ago embraced the Roman Catholic faith. He began the discourse last evening by contrasting his former beliefs with those he now holds, and speaking of his former views on the "Reformation," said that "the most monstrous lie of the long conspiracy of historians is imbedded in the term 'reformation.'"

He laid down three lines of investigation which he employed to secure his reform. Was it a line about on reasonable lines? Was the result consummation? "For many years," said Mr. Adams, "historians referred to the 'dark ages' as a period of unrelieved horror, foul with the blot of bigotry, licentiousness and suppression of intellectual achievements."

"Within the past few years, however, more light has been poured into historians' books, and it is admitted that in this period some of the world's notable achievements were accomplished. From whence then, the Magna Charta, the right of trial by jury, a Dante, a Galileo, a Gutenberg, the wonderful works of art and sculpture which today stand unsurpassed, and the great universities of Europe are founded on gifts from this age."

"The church was virile in the early centuries, and stood against the tyrannies of the Roman Emperor, who martyred many Christians. And during the so-called dark ages it stood against wrong. To say it had failed, is to say that the church which kept the church which he had planted."

"The church stood out against the times, it was a light in the darkness, a banner of unshaken faith and of one simple word, Love, wrought out the better civilization of continental Europe."

"It may be that individuals failed to teach the truth, but the church suppressed their archbishop and patriarchs were excommunicated for saying that Christ was like God, but was God. The church stood out against the times, it was a light in the darkness, a banner of unshaken faith and of one simple word, Love, wrought out the better civilization of continental Europe."

"We had a chained Bible, you say. Thank God, the old church was there to chain it. Protestant churches scarcely know whether they have a Bible at all, today, as chapters and books are lopped off with ease. They know it today; tomorrow they may not. The church stands for the inviolability of the Bible, and has been steadfast for it almost two thousand years."

"Luther's own letters prove that his life was one long sewer of sensuality. Can it be that, even were there need of reformation, God would use an instrument like this against His own church?"

The results of the movement have been the blunting of the moral senses. Creeds have multiplied, and are occasionally revised; the Bible is discarded; there is a laxity of regard for the marriage ties, and a pressure on the divorce courts, and the murder of the unborn is winked at.

"The old mother church stands as a bulwark to protect the Bible, thunder against crime and the transgression of moral law, and is the unflinching moral protector of ethics."

Tonight the Newman Club entertains Mr. Adams with a banquet at the Los Angeles Hotel. The Newman Club House the lecturer will speak on "The Theater." Wednesday evening the St. Vincent choir concert for the Father Meyer monument fund will be given, at which Mr. Adams will be present. Thursday evening at Elks Hall he will speak on "The Destiny of Erin."

OUTDOOR ART. The local branch of the American Park and Outdoor Art Association, of which Miss Mary L. Jones, librarian, is secretary, will meet tomorrow afternoon at 2:30 o'clock at the home of Mrs. Willoughby Rodman, No. 2831 Orchard avenue. Everybody interested in the work of the association is invited to attend. The association is interested in the work of the annual convention which meets in Boston August. The Park Commission regards the work of such importance that the Council has been asked to appropriate funds to defray the expenses of one of their number in visiting the convention.

DIED IN HIS YARD. J. J. Joyce, aged 51, who came here about three years ago from Massachusetts, died very suddenly Saturday afternoon of heart disease in his yard at No. 978 Yale street. He was employed by his brother, F. P. Joyce, a well-known oil operator, who lives across the street from his residence. Yesterday afternoon Joyce went to his brother's house and remained a few minutes. As he returned he was seen to fall in his yard, and when a distance reached him he was dead. The body was removed to Booth & Hoyson's morgue, where an inquest will be held today. The deceased was unmarried.
